Steppingstone to an academic career in virology

Berlin 23rd-24th March 2020, Hotel Seminaris

Concept

An interdisciplinary career development event following the One Health concept

Day 1 – Monday, 23rd March 2020

Time	Event	Presenter(s)
12:30-13:00	Registration and refreshments

	Getting to know each other
13:00-13:10	Welcome and outlook	Organizers
13:10-13:30	Speed dating, who are you?	All
13:30-14:00	What does the Zoonoseplattform do - how does it help me?	Dana Thal

	Key note lecture
14:00-14:45	Pathogens on the rise - zoonoses as moving threat	Stephan Ludwig, Key note

14:45-15:15	Coffee break and get together

	Career talks – learning from each other
15:15-15:30	A medical specialist in virology - Clinical diagnostics and counseling in human medicine	Corinna Pietsch
15:30-15:45	Breaking barriers - A PhD in the medical world	Adalbert Krawczyk
15:45-16:00	One Health, Work-Life-Balance - Getting everything under one roof	Victor Corman
16:00-17:00	Round tables with previous speakers (2 x 30 min)

17:00-17:20	Wrap-up
19:00	Dinner at Trattoria Toscana - Clayallee 146, 14195 Berlin

This event is supported by DZIF and Roche

Time	Event	Presenter(s)
	Tips and tricks - how to do it right
9:00-9:30	What role does DZIF-Academy play - how does it support me?	Nadja Käding
9:30-10:30	How to write a grant that will be funded?	Peter Stäheli
10:30-11:00	Coffee break
11:00-11:45	What makes a strong paper?	João Duarte, Editor Nature Biomedical Engineering
11:45-13:00	Lunch
	Key note lecture
13:00-13:45	Every cell matters - Infection processes with single cell resolution	Florian Erhard, Key note
	Career talks – learning from each other
13:45-14:00	Career and family across the Atlantic - Germany vs. USA	Imke Steffen
14:00-14:15	The path to success - From PhD/MD/Vet.Med to professorship (W3)!	Stephan Ludwig
14:15-14:30	A Virologist in industry - Is the grass really greener?	Jens Kursawe, Roche Diagnostics Germany
14:30-15:30	Round tables with previous speakers (2 x 30min)
15:30-15:45	Wrap-up, End of workshop

This event is supported by DZIF and Roche